

WOODBURN HIGH SCHOOL MARIACHI BAND

Woodburn High School in Woodburn, Oregon started its Mariachi Band program in 2003. Woodburn's Mariachi program is the first such program in the state of Oregon and the second in the Pacific Northwest. Since its inception, the band has been very successful and in very high demand for performances. Among the events for which the band has performed include MEChA's annual regional Cesar E. Chavez Conference at the University of Portland, Portland State University's Latino/Chicano Gala at the Portland Convention Center, the Oregon School Board Association statewide conference, a performance with Guadalajara's international Mariachi vocalist, Luis Fernando at Portland's Cinco de Mayo celebration at Waterfront Park on the main stage, State of Oregon House of Representatives and numerous school assemblies and multi-cultural functions throughout the Willamette Valley.
